

I am very concerned about any regulation that would allow for more consolidation of the media. I think this is a very dangerous slippery slope and urge you not to allow this to go into effect. The diversity that we have in the news media contributes greatly to our perception of the world around us and helps keep our nation great.